

The following Affirmation of Faith was part of the worship service at the retreat. Pastor Bohren compiled the worship service.

Why not use this in a devotion with your LWML group.
You might like to use it for your personal devotions
(you might like to read it aloud).

Affirmation of Faith

I love God the Father with all my heart, and with all my soul, and with all my mind.

He works for good in all things with those who love Him.

He is both Creator and creative, a source of steadfast love and joy.

To Him be praise and honor, glory and might, forever and ever.

"Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

I love Jesus Christ with all my heart, and with all my soul, and with all my mind.

He keeps forever the souls of all who trust Him and take up their crosses and follow Him.

He is both Savior and saving, a source of continual forgiveness and peace.

To Him be praise and honor, glory and might, forever and ever.

"Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

I love the Holy Spirit with all my heart, and with all my soul, and with all my mind.

He makes us sons and daughters of God and sets our whole beings free.

The Spirit joins Himself to our spirits to declare the greatness of God.

To Him be praise and honor, glory and might, forever and ever.

"Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

I love the One God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, who has touched my life.

"Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

Amen.

This Affirmation of Faith has been revised from the original as written from Lutheran Lectionary © Fellowship Ministries (written by Kelly Ferrari).